East Liverpool Responds to the Call of Duty.

GOOD WORK WILL BE DONE

The Second Night of the Evangelistic Work Attracts an Immense Audience. Synopsis of the Evangelist's Address. The Master Answers Prayer.

"Pass Under the Blood" was the selection of song which opened the meeting at the rink last night. Mrs. Ted Brookes presiding at the organ. Then came, "What a Wonderful Savior," the audience joining in with a will. Next came "Wonderful Story of Love," and then Reverend Huffer announced prayer on the part of several laymen in the audience, this being followed by the singing of "Coronation."

At 10 minutes of eight o'clock the evangelist took charge, announcing as the song selection "Oh, to be Something," stating that Sankey's sweet singing had much to do with his conversion. Then came selections of song, first by the choir, and the audience coming in on the chorus. Then the children rendered song service; next those up to the age of 40 years; this followed by those ranging from 40 to 65 years, the evangelist keeping up a running commentary of exhortation and innocent pleasantries, winning the vast audience to close attention. Reverend O'Meara, of St. Stephen's church, led in earnest prayer, asking God's blessing on the movement and upon the evangelist in his work for Jesus.

Reverend Huffer, of the Christian church, read the scripture lesson, after which the "offering" was taken. Schiverea invited everybody to come to the rink next Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, open to men alone; the subject "Something That Every Man Believes In." All are interested, saloon-keeper, libertines, good men and bad men; no boys under 12 years of age admitted. No boys allowed, unless accompanied by parents or guardians. Next came the singing of the doxology, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," after which Rev. John Lloyd Lee led in prayer.

The evangelist then assumed charge of the meeting and urged that professing Christians go to the gallery the first thing tonight and give the non-professors the opportunity to occupy the body of the rink. There was an overflow meeting last night, those unable to gain admission to the rink going to the Presbyterian church. Tonight and hereafter, during the meetings, Reverend Schiverea will first address the crowd at the rink, and afterwards talk to those assembled at Doctor Lee's church.

The eleventh chapter of John and fortieth verse was then read by the evangelist, and the raising of Lazarus from the dead was made the subject of a talk which won close attention from the immense mass of people. Lazarus was dead; had been entombed for four days; his sisters told the sad news to Jesus; they knew he would rise again in the great resurrection morn; but they could not and did not believe he would rise again upon this earth, visible to mortal eyes and back to mortal love and kindred. Lazarus was dead; and there is a host of dead now in East Liverpool; dead with an awful death; dead in trespasses and sins. Jesus uses the very same words to us tonight that he did to the sisters of Lazarus in the olden time, "if thou wilt believe then shalt thou see the glory of God." But the sisters and their friends had a work to do; they were commanded to roll away the stone. God would do nothing until they did what they could. Jesus commands us to do what we can. We must not and shall not be permitted to ask the why and wherefore. God commands; humanity has but to obey. Give implicit obedience, and you will be blessed to a degree which you have never even dreamed of. You have as much to do with bringing the answer to your prayers as has the blessed Master. Prayer is the mighty lever which moves the world. Here's a homely illustration of faith and of faith and works combined, although I do not advocate the modus operandi of the colored man. He was sick and he wanted chicken; he wanted that chicken awful bad; the first night he prayed for it earnestly, but it came not; he urged the matter the second night, but no fowl arrived. He then came to the conclusion that faith without works was a failure, and he worked the combination—rose from his bed the third night and went out and got the poultry. There were two farmers; one was blessed with good crops, fine stock and general prosperity; the other's crops failed, his stock was scraggy and everything he put his hand to failed. The prosperous farmer prayed earnestly that his less fortunate neighbor might be blessed; that good fortune, provision, etc., might be sent to him by the Lord. Finally the farmer's boy, who had been listening closely to his father's prayers, broke in with: "Say, pap, I believe the Lord wants you to answer that prayer yourself, and I'll hitch up the team, load up the wagon with potatoes, apples, wheat, pork and a few other necessities, and take them over to neighbor Smith." And he did, and prayer was answered. Do you see the application? You must roll away the stone, and the rolling must be done right here in East Liverpool.

The inconsistency of professing Christians sends many precious souls to hell. Many members of your churches are merely using their position in the house of God for business purposes, or for advancement in the social circle. The man who joins a church from such motives is no better than the thief who steals a pocket-book, and I'd rather trust the thief. Such members would make even the devil blush.

At Chicago, at the World's fair, the heathen had experience with this class of church members, and they said: "If that's a fair specimen of Christianity, we want none of it."

If we have Christ's religion, there will be no necessity of us telling the world we have it. It will shine out in our faces and our lives. Think of a member of a Christian Endeavor taking sacrament on Sunday and going to a private dance on Monday. Such Christianity dances the party believing in it down into hell. A young lady Endeavorer was on her way to a dance, when a true Christian addressed her as follows: "Can you take Christ with you to this dance? Can you save a soul in the dance room?" She dared to make reply that she could do Christian work at either the private or public dance, and went on her way. When she was promenading with a fine-looking fellow during the evening, she turned her eyes up into his face and said: "My dear friend, are you a Christian?" The reply came in courteous tones: "I am sorry to say that I am not." Then the Endeavorer, in pathetic tones, said: "Oh, I'm so sorry." Then her escort said to her: "Are you a Christian?" The reply came promptly: "Oh, yes." Dropping her arm he turned upon her and said: "You are a Christian? Then, in the name of God, what are you doing here?" Oh, my people, when I was wicked, straight on the road to hell, I met lots of church members whom I know did such evil work as I would not think of doing.

Think of the member of your school board of East Liverpool, who advocates the dismissal of all the teachers and the closing of the schools, rather than have the precious Bible, the word of God, read in those schools. Oh, shame upon you if you permit such work. All over this grand country we find that one or two men control the entire board; and the same rule holds good here. The infidel comes to me and tells me my religion and my bible are all bosh. I look at him and say to him, "Can you give me anything better—anything as good?" He stammers and stutters, and is finally forced to say "No." Then I tell him to shut up and take himself off, and leave to me my only hope and consolation. Think of it, men; our God, your God, my God, will stop the creation of a mighty world, in order to save a single soul. Oh, how precious that soul must be. I'll hold on to my Bible and to the blessed Christ until the world can give me

Made by Members of the McKinley Club.

REGARDING McLAUGHLIN'S TALE

A Committee Was Appointed to Investigate the Matter and Will Report at the Next Meeting—Officers are Elected for the Coming Term.

The McKinley club met in their rooms on Fifth street last night, a large audience being present. Many new members were added to the roll, and the club is now one of the most prosperous in the city.

The report of the treasurer for the past six months of the club showed a balance of $20.43. The financial secretary then read his report and E. W. Hill, as recording secretary of the club, in a neat and very interesting speech, gave a brief review of the history of the organization, telling how it came to life, and related several anecdotes that pleased all.

The statement alleged to have been made by J. B. McLaughlin, as published in the Pittsburgh Times last Monday, was brought up, and the denunciations were hot and heavy, as McLaughlin has up to the present time not even made an attempt to deny the statement, his action in going to the Post, a notorious Democratic sheet, to make his statement, instead of the paper that published the article, being in reality a voluntary confession. The spirit of fairness prevailed, however, and it was decided to take no action until an investigation was made and the truth found out. A committee, composed of F. H. Croxall, F. E. Grosshans and W. V. Blake were appointed and will report at the next meeting. If McLaughlin is innocent, the club, as well as the News Review, the leading Republican paper of the county, will take pleasure in exonerating him, but if he is guilty, denunciations, hot and scathing, will follow, and he will be ignominiously expelled from membership in the club. In the article published in the Post, he made no refutation of the story about ex-Governor McKinley and his honored wife.

The election of officers was the next business and the following officers were selected: President, G. W. Ashbaugh; vice president, John S. Goodwin; recording secretary, E. W. Hill; financial secretary, Charles M. Dix; treasurer, F. H. Croxall; sergeant-at-arms, George Grosshans.

F. E. Grosshans moved that an auditing committee be appointed, and President Walter Hill called for the new president to take the chair, who after a short speech appointed Thomas Arbuckle, Dan Nellis, S. T. Herbert as the committee. A vote of thanks was then tendered the retiring officers and was responded to by Walter Hill, who said he thought it would also be well to tender the officers that had been re-elected a vote of thanks. This was done, and the business being finished the club was ready for the literary program.

The address of A. H. Clarke on "The Republican Party and Its Relation to the Tariff," was an interesting and instructive one, and was listened to with rapt attention by the members present. The gentleman reviewed the history of the Republican party and the tariff question, going clear back to the days of Washington, and bringing it down to the present time, in a logical manner that none could fail to understand.

He was followed by D. J. Smith on the same subject, who made an unusually fine extemporaneous address. Mr. Smith told many anecdotes to illustrate his points, and was warmly requested to continue when he stated that he would have to close. The meeting then adjourned and the club will hold another meeting in the near future to transact business of importance.

NEW BALL GROUNDS.

They Will Be Located on the West Virginia Side.

A base ball ground will be fitted up across the river by the bridge people, and will be made an ideal one. The grounds will be located directly across from the wharf boat, and will be enclosed by a high, tight board fence. Work will be commenced grading and getting the ground in shape in the near future, and although it will not be finished in time to have any ball games there this season, the Eclipse football team contemplate playing their games there in the fall. This is a move that has been contemplated several times, but no definite action has been taken until the present time.

The Columbian ball club of East End met last night and considered two propositions for grounds that were presented to them. One is for a ground above the sewer pipe works and the other is the race track. There is money back of the club, and if either ground is accepted, it will be put in first-class shape for use.

The Young Men's Christian Association ball club failed to meet last night, as there was not a sufficient number present to transact business. Another meeting will be called in the near future.

A RUMOR

That Two More School Teachers Will Resign.

In lieu of the reading of the bible in the schools, Superintendent Sanor has submitted a list of poems, extracts and a few passages taken from the scriptures to be read to the scholars. A few of the poems and extracts touch on religion. It is rumored that there are two more teachers, who feel that their consciences will not permit them to discontinue the use of the Bible in the school, and they are seriously contemplating sending in their resignations, in preference to being denied this privilege, that has so long been in vogue with them. Some time since the superintendent instructed the scholars of the grammar school to read and study carefully "Don Quixote," and then write an essay on the work. There are many who think that the studying of the bible would be productive of more good than the reading of this racy literature.

KILLED THE DOG.

And the Owner Wanted to Whip the Motorman.

A street car ran over a pup near the West End pottery yesterday afternoon and completely severed its head from the body. The owner of the dog was nearby and immediately boarded the car and invited the motorman off to do battle, which proposition the motorman refused, to the disgust of a number of spectators who expected to see some fun. The man declared that the motorman did it on purpose, while the street car man said it was purely accidental. The dog, as is usual in such cases, was a valuable one.

A Horse Scared by Two Small Boys on Avondale Street.

A horse belonging to James Blazier was attached to a wagon and standing on Avondale street yesterday afternoon, and two small boys began to unharness the animal. This scared it, and caused it to take fright and run away. The wagon parted from the harness and was thrown over the hillside, and continued on its course until it struck a snag in the form of a stump of a tree. The horse was stopped on Walnut street, near Knowles pottery. The wagon was partly demolished.

HUMPHREYS AGAIN

Ran Away From the Infirmary Yesterday Morning.

Tommy Humphreys, the irrepressible Tommy, is back in the city again. He stole away from the infirmary early yesterday morning, and arrived here last night. He said that he came home to gather up a few of his belongings, preparatory to leaving for England. Trustee Albright is of the opinion that the authorities at the infirmary will put a ball and chain on Humphreys when he returns.

A Funny Incident.

One young lady, a member of the chorus at the rink, had in her possession last night an invitation to a private dance, which she dropped on the floor. It was picked up by another member and returned to her. Whether she dropped it purposely is not known, but when it is remembered Evangelist Schiverea preached straight at dances, it looks as though her conscience might have troubled her, and caused her to lose the invitation.

S. J. Roller.

Candidate for infirmary director, was in the city yesterday and paid the News Review office a visit. He is an old comrade, having done good service in the One Hundred and Fourth Ohio volunteer infantry, and was a sojourner in that famous, or infamous, southern hotel, Andersonville prison pen.

Will Meet Tonight.

The board of health will meet tonight and the annual reports of the secretary and health officer will be heard. There is but one more meeting to be held before the expiration of the terms of the present members of the board.

Not Superstitious.

The Cosmopolitan club took in 13 new members last meeting night. They evidently are not superstitious.

LEGALITY QUESTIONED

The Appointment Made by the Board.

INTERPRETATION OF THE LAW

Miss Deidrick Cannot Legally Collect Any Compensation for Services She May Render—Has no Certificate—Board's Action Illegal.

Since the dismissal of Miss Florence Jessop as a teacher in the Fourth street school building, the legality of the action of the board of education in appointing Miss Alice Deidrick to fill the vacancy, even temporarily, is questioned. Miss Deidrick never received any certificate from the board of examiners authorizing her to legally teach school, and until such a certificate can be produced no compensation for services rendered can be received.

Section 4051 of the revised statutes of Ohio, distinctly specifies that the clerk shall only issue an order on the treasury for the payment of a teacher's salary when a certificate is produced, signed by a majority of the examiners, certifying that he or she has passed a successful examination and is qualified to be a teacher.

Section 4074 of the statutes, provides that no person shall be employed as a teacher in the common schools, by the board, who has not received a certificate from the board of examiners.

Miss Deidrick cannot produce the necessary prerequisite to teach, and it is evident from the interpretation of the law that she cannot legally collect any remuneration for any service she may render teaching.

THE BANK CAME DOWN

And James Polk Green Was Beneath the Debris.

James Polk Green, of Calcutta road, had a narrow escape from death about 4:30 yesterday afternoon, and as it is, he now lies at his home, his body covered with many bruises, owing to a quantity of rock and frozen earth falling on top of him.

Green and a fellow workman, George Aker, were engaged in stripping soap stone in a quarry just over the hill from Calcutta road, near intersection with Wall street, and an effort was being made to dislodge a large stone from the side of the bank and they resorted to undermining to endeavor to loosen it. The rock was still thought to be perfectly secure and Green turned to perform some other mission, when, without a moment's warning, the great mass of stone and dirt gave way and fell. Akers saw the danger that his fellow workman was in and shouted to him to get out of harm's way. It was too late, however, and Green was caught by the great mass of debris and partially covered. Akers ran to his companion's assistance, and after some difficulty succeeded in extricating him from his perilous position.

When the earth struck Green he was thrown on his breast and badly crushed, his back bearing many bruises. One finger is mashed and the flesh in some parts is torn from his limbs.

He was assisted to his home and a physician summoned, who made an examination and pronounced his injuries such that will detain him bedfast for some time to come, although he does not think they will prove serious.

A STOCKHOLDER

In a Gold Mine in Mexico Spent a Few Days Here.

A. B. Smith, one of the stockholders in the Mexican gold mine that W. L. Smith and Col. J. N. Taylor are interested in, has been in town the past few days. Mr. Smith formerly lived in Wellsville and is a cousin to Judge P. M. Smith, and makes yearly trips from Mexico to this place. Mr. Smith left for the oil regions in Butler county, Pa., today, to look after his oil interests there. It will be remembered that Mr. Smith contracted with Electrician McKeon, of the light plant here, some time ago, to go to Mexico and equip the mines with electric lights.

An Old Resident Dead.

Walter Cook, Sr., died last night at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Sanders Bevington, Third street, after an illness of asthma. Deceased was aged 71 years and has been a resident of this city since 1853. He was one of the first to engage in the potting business here. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mayor Gilbert tomorrow afternoon at 3:30.

Taken Away.

The remains of Lola, the 11-year-old child of Mrs. Emmett Whan, were taken to East Palestine for interment today.

GOOD WORK WILL BE DONE

The Second Night of the Evangelistic Work Attracts an Immense Audience.
Synopsis of the Evangelist's Address.
The Master Answers Prayer.

"Pass Under the Blood" was the selection of song which opened the meeting at the rink last night. Mrs.
Ted Brookes presiding at the organ.
Then came, "What a Wonderful Savior," the audience joining in with a will. Next came "Wonderful Story of Love," and then Reverend Huffer announced prayer on the part of several laymen in the audience, this being followed by the singing of "Coronation."

At 10 minutes of eight o'clock the evangelist took charge, announcing as the song selection "Oh, to be Something," stating that Sankey's sweet singing had much to do with his conversion. Then came selections of song, first by the choir, and the audience coming in on the chorus.
Then the children rendered song service; next those up to the age of 40 years; this followed by those ranging from 40 to 65 years, the evangelist keeping up a running commentary of exhortation and innocent pleasantries, winning the vast audience to close attention. Reverend O'Meara, of St.
Stephen's church, led in earnest prayer, asking God's blessing on the movement and upon the evangelist in his work for Jesus.

Reverend Huffer, of the Christian church, read the scripture lesson, after which the "offering" was taken.
Schivera invited everybody to come to the rink next Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, open to men alone; the subject "Something That Every Man Believes In." All are interested, saloon-keeper, libertines, good men and bad men; no boys under 12 years of age admitted. No boys allowed, unless accompanied by parents or guardians.
Next came the singing of the doxology, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," after which Rev.
John Lloyd Lee led in prayer.

The evangelist then assumed charge of the meeting and urged that professing Christians go to the gallery the first thing tonight and give the non-professors the opportunity to occupy the body of the rink. There was an overflow meeting last night, those unable to gain admission to the rink going to the Presbyterian church.
Tonight and hereafter, during the meetings, Reverend Schivera will first address the crowd at the rink, and afterwards talk to those assembled at Doctor Lee's church.

The eleventh chapter of John and fortieth verse was then read by the evangelist, and the raising of Lazarus from the dead was made the subject of a talk which won close attention from the immense mass of people.
Lazarus was dead; had been entombed for four days; his sisters told the sad news to Jesus; they knew he would rise again in the great resurrection morn; but they could not and did not believe he would rise again upon this earth, visible to mortal eyes and back to mortal love and kindred.
Lazarus was dead; and there is a host of dead now in East Liverpool; dead with an awful death; dead in trespasses and sins. Jesus uses the very same words to us tonight that he did to the sisters of Lazarus in the olden time, "if thou wilt believe then shalt thou see the glory of God." But the sisters and their friends had a work to do; they were commanded to roll away the stone." God would do nothing until they did what they could. Jesus commands us to do what we can. We must not and shall not be permitted to ask the why and wherefore. God commands; humanity has but to obey. Give implicit obedience, and you will be blessed to a degree which you have never even dreamed of. You have as much to do with bringing the answer to your prayers as has the blessed Master.
Prayer is the mighty lever which moves the world. Here's a homely illustration of faith and of faith and works combined, although I do not advocate the modus operandi of the colored man. He was sick and he wanted chicken; he wanted that chicken awful bad; the first night he prayed for it earnestly, but it came not; he urged the matter the second night, but no fowl arrived. He then came to the conclusion that faith without works was a failure, and he worked the combination—rose from his bed the third night and went out and got the poultry. There were two farmers; one was blessed with good crops, fine stock and general prosperity; the other's crops failed, his stock was scraggy and everything he put his hand to failed. The prosperous farmer prayed earnestly that his less fortunate neighbor might be blessed; that good fortune, provision, etc., might be sent to him by the Lord. Finally the farmer's boy, who had been listening closely to his father's prayers, broke in with: "Say, papa, I believe the Lord wants you to answer that prayer yourself, and I'll hitch up the team, load up the wagon with potatoes, apples, wheat, pork and a few other necessities, and take them over to neighbor Smith." And he did, and prayer was answered. Do you see the application? You must roll away the stone, and the rolling must be done right here in East Liverpool.

The inconsistency of professing Christians sends many precious souls to hell. Many members of your churches are merely using their position in the house of God for business purposes, or for advancement in the social circle. The man who joins a church from such motives is no better than the thief who steals a pocketbook, and I'd rather trust the thief.
Such members would make even the devil blush.

At Chicago, at the World's fair, the heathen had experience with this class of church members, and they said: "If that's a fair specimen of Christianity, we want none of it."

If we have Christ's religion, there will be no necessity of us telling the world we have it. It will shine out in our faces and our lives. Think of a member of a Christian Endeavor taking sacrament on Sunday and going to a private dance on Monday. Such Christianity dances the party believing in it down into hell. A young lady Endeavorer was on her way to a dance, when a true Christian addressed her as follows: "Can you take Christ with you to this dance? Can you save a soul in the dance room?" She dared to make reply that she could do Christian work at either the private or public dance, and went on her way. When she was promenading with a fine-looking fellow during the evening, she turned her eyes up into his face and said: "My dear friend, are you a Christian?" The reply came in courteous tones: "I am sorry to say that I am not." Then the Endeavorer, in pathetic tones, said: "Oh, I'm so sorry." Then her escort said to her:
"Are you a Christian?" The reply came promptly: "Oh, yes." Dropping her arm he turned upon her and said:
"You are are Christian? Then, in the name of God, what are you doing here?" Oh, my people, when I was wicked, straight on the road to hell, I met lots of church members whom I knew did such evil work as I would not think of doing.

Think of the member of your school board of East Liverpool, who advocates the dismissal of all the teachers and the closing of the schools, rather than have the precious Bible, the word of God, read in those schools.
Oh, shame upon you if you permit such work. All over this grand country we find that one or two men control the entire board; and the same rule holds good here. Think of that poor girl, turned out of her school because she dared to read the word of God to her pupils. How can you permit such work in your midst. Look at Manitoba, where thousands of Catholics voted to retain the Bible—the Protestant Bible—in the schools.
Shame on you, Protestants of East Liverpool, for permitting it to be barred out here. In the name of our God, I protest against this infamy.
Think of it, men and women of this city. I was christened a Roman Catholic; and yet here I stand, pleading that the Protestant Bible shall be read to the children in your public schools.

You say that you believe in the Bible, but that there are many things therein that you can not understand, and ask what you shall do in such an emergency. Do as the man eating fish does; throw the bones to one side and keep on eating the good meat.
There is plenty of good meat in the Bible to keep you reading and studying and profiting thereby for all your life.

Ho, there, you infidels. What has infidelity done for the world, from Voltaire down to poor Bob Ingersoll?
Nothing—worse than nothing. The infidel comes to me and tells me my religion and my bible are all bosh. I look at him and say to him, "Can you give me anything better—anything as good?" He stammers and stutters, and is finally forced to say "No." Then I tell him to shut up and take himself off, and leave to me my only hope and consolation. Think of it, men; our God, your God, my God, will stop the creation of a mighty world, in order to save a single soul. Oh, how precious that soul must be. I'll hold on to my Bible and to the blessed Christ until the world can give me

Made by Members of the Mc-Kinley Club.

A Committee Was Appointed to Investigate the Matter and Will Report at the Next Meeting—Officers are Elected for the Coming Term.

The McKinley club met in their rooms on Fifth street last night, a large audience being present. Many new members were added to the roll, and the club is now one of the most prosperous in the city.

The report of the treasurer for the past six months of the club showed a balance of $20.43. The financial secretary then read his report and E. W.
Hill, as recording secretary of the club, in a neat and very interesting speech, gave a brief review of the history of the organization, telling how it came to life, and related several anecdotes that pleased all.

The statement alleged to have been made by J. B. McLaughlin, as published in the Pittsburgh Times last Monday, was brought up, and the denunciations were hot and heavy, as McLaughlin has up to the present time not even made an attempt to deny the statement, his action in going to the Post, a notorious Democratic sheet, to make his statement, instead of the paper that published the article, being in reality a voluntary confession. The spirit of fairness prevailed, however, and it was decided to take no action until an investigation was made and the truth found out.
A committee, composed of F.
H. Croxall, F. E. Grosshans and W. V. Blake were appointed and will report at the next meeting.
If McLaughlin is innocent, the club, as well as the NEWS REVIEW, the leading Republican paper of the county, will take pleasure in exoner-ating him, but if he is guilty, denun-ciations, hot and scathing, will follow, and he will be ignominiously expelled from membership in the club. In the article published in the Post, he made no refutation of the story about ex-Governor McKinley and his honored wife.

The election of officers was the next business and the following officers were selected: President, G. W. Ash-baugh; vice president, John S. Goodwin; recording secretary, E. W. Hill; financial secretary, Charles M. Dix; treasurer, F. H. Croxall; sergeant-at-arms, George Grosshans.

F. E. Grosshans moved that an auditing committee be appointed, and President Walter Hill called for the new president to take the chair, who after a short speech appointed Thomas Arbuckle, Dan Nellis, S. T. Herbert as the committee. A vote of thanks was then tendered the retiring officers and was responded to by Walter Hill, who said he thought it would also be well to tender the officers that had been re-elected a vote of thanks.
This was done, and the business being finished the club was ready for the literary program.

The address of A. H. Clarke on "The Republican Party and Its Relation to the Tariff," was an interesting and instructive one, and was listened to with rapt attention by the members present. The gentleman reviewed the history of the Republican party and the tariff question, going clear back to the days of Washington, and bringing it down to the present time, in a logical manner that none could fail to understand.

He was followed by D. J. Smith on the same subject, who made an unusually fine extemporaneous address. Mr. Smith told many anecdotes to illustrate his points, and was warmly requested to continue when he stated that he would have to close. The meeting then adjourned and the club will hold another meeting in the near future to transact business of importance.

NEW BALL GROUNDS.

They Will Be Located on the West Virginia Side.

A base ball ground will be fitted up across the river by the bridge people, and will be made an ideal one. The grounds will be located directly across from the wharf boat, and will be enclosed by a high, tight board fence.
Work will be commenced grading and getting the ground in shape in the near future, and although it will not be finished in time to have any ball games there this season, the Eclipse football team contemplate playing their games there in the fall. This is a move that has been contemplated several times, but no definite action has been taken until the present time.
The Columbian ball club of East End met last night and considered two propositions for grounds that were presented to them. One is for a ground above the sewer pipe works and the other is the race track. There is money back of the club, and if either ground is accepted, it will be put in first-class shape for use.

The Young Men's Christian Association ball club failed to meet last night, as there was not a sufficient number present to transact business.
Another meeting will be called in the near future.

That Two More School Teachers Will Resign.

In lieu of the reading of the bible in the schools, Superintendent Sanor has submitted a list of poems, extracts and a few passages taken from the scriptures to be read to the scholars. A few of the poems and extracts touch on religion. It is rumored that there are two more teachers, who feel that their consciences will not permit them to discontinue the use of the Bible in the school, and they are seriously contemplating sending in their resignations, in preference to being denied this privilege, that has so long been in vogue with them.
Some time since the superintendent instructed the scholars of the grammar school to read and study carefully "Don Quixote," and then write an essay on the work. There are many who think that the studying of the bible would be productive of more good than the reading of this racy literature.

KILLED THE DOG.

And the Owner Wanted to Whip the Motorman.

A street car ran over a pup near the West End pottery yesterday afternoon and completely severed its head from the body. The owner of the dog was nearby and immediately boarded the car and invited the motorman off to do battle, which proposition the motorman refused, to the disgust of a number of spectators who expected to see some fun. The man declared that the motorman did it on purpose, while the street car man said it was purely accidental. The dog, as is usual in such cases, was a valuable one.

RAN AWAY.

A Horse Scared by Two Small Boys on Avondale Street.

A horse belonging to James Blazier was attached to a wagon and standing on Avondale street yesterday afternoon, and two small boys began to unharness the animal. This scared it, and caused it to take fright and run away. The wagon parted from the harness and was thrown over the hillside, and continued on its course until it struck a snag in the form of a stump of a tree. The horse was stopped on Walnut street, near Knowles pottery. The wagon was partly demolished.

Ran Away From the Infirmary Yesterday Morning.

Tommy Humphreys, the irrespos-ible Tommy, is back in the city again.
He stole away from the infirmary early yesterday morning, and arrived here last night. He said that he came home to gather up a few of his belongings, preparatory to leaving for England. Trustee Albright is of the opinion that the authorities at the infirmary will put a ball and chain on Humphreys when he returns.

A Funny Incident.

One young lady, a member of the chorus at the rink, had in her possession last night an invitation to a private dance, which she dropped on the floor. It was picked up by another member and returned to her. Whether she dropped it purposely is not known, but when it is remembered Evangelist Schivera preached straight at dances, it looks as though her conscience might have troubled her, and caused her to lose the invitation.

S. J. Roller.

Candidate for infirmary director, was in the city yesterday and paid the NEWS REVIEW office a visit. He is an old comrade, having done good service in the One Hundred and Fourth Ohio volunteer infantry, and was a sojourner in that famous, or infamous, southern hotel, Andersonville prison pen.

Will Meet Tonight.

The board of health will meet tonight and the annual reports of the secretary and health officer will be heard. There is but one more meeting to be held before the expiration of the terms of the present members of the board.

Not Superstitious.

The Cosmopolitan club took in 13 new members last meeting night.
They evidently are not superstitious.

The Appointment Made by the Board.

Miss Deldrick Cannot Legally Collect Any Compensation for Services She May Render—Has no Certificate—Board's Action Illegal.

Since the dismissal of Miss Florence Jessop as a teacher in the Fourth street school building, the legality of the action of the board of education in appointing Miss Alice Deldrick to fill the vacancy, even temporarily, is questioned. Miss Deldrick never received any certificate from the board of examiners authorizing her to legally teach school, and until such a certificate can be produced no compensation for services rendered can be received.

Section 4051 of the revised statutes of Ohio, distinctly specifies that the clerk shall only issue an order on the treasury for the payment of a teacher's salary when a certificate is produced, signed by a majority of the examiners, certifying that he or she has passed a successful examination and is qualified to be a teacher.

Section 4074 of the statutes, provides that no person shall be employed as a teacher in the common schools, by the board, who has not received a certificate from the board of examiners.

Miss Deldrick cannot produce the necessary prerequisite to teach, and it is evident from the interpretation of the law that she cannot legally collect any remuneration for any service she may render teaching.

And James Polk Green Was Beneath the Debris.

James Polk Green, of Calcutta road, had a narrow escape from death about 4:30 yesterday afternoon, and as it is, he now lies at his home, his body covered with many bruises, owing to a quantity of rock and frozen earth falling on top of him.

Green and a fellow workman, George Aker, were engaged in stripping soap stone in a quarry just over the hill from Calcutta road, near intersection with Wall street, and an effort was being made to dislodge a large stone from the side of the bank and they resorted to undermining to endeavor to loosen it. The rock was still thought to be perfectly secure and Green turned to perform some other mission, when, without a moment's warning, the great mass of stone and dirt gave way and fell. Aker saw the danger that his fellow workman was in and shouted to him to get out of harm's way. It was too late, however, and Green was caught by the great mass of debris and partially covered. Aker ran to his compan-ion's assistance, and after some difficulty succeeded in extricating him from his perilous position.

When the earth struck Green he was thrown on his breast and badly crushed, his back bearing many bruises. One finger is mashed and the flesh in some parts is torn from his limbs.

He was assisted to his home and a physician summoned, who made an examination and pronounced his injuries such that will detain him bedfast for some time to come, although he does not think they will prove serious.

A STOCKHOLDER

In a Gold Mine in Mexico Spent a Few Days Here.

A. B. Smith, one of the stockholders in the Mexican gold mine that W. L.
Smith and Col. J. N. Taylor are interested in, has been in town the past few days. Mr. Smith formerly lived in Wellsville and is a cousin to Judge P. M. Smith, and makes yearly trips from Mexico to this place. Mr. Smith left for the oil regions in Butler county, Pa., today, to look after his oil interests there. It will be remembered that Mr. Smith contracted with Electrician McKeon, of the light plant here, some time ago, to go to Mexico and equip the mines with electric lights.

An Old Resident Dead.

Walter Cook, Sr., died last night at the residence of his daughter, Mrs.
Sanders Bevington, Third street, after an illness of asthma. Deceased was aged 71 years and has been a resident of this city since 1853. He was one of the first to engage in the potting business here. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mayor Gilbert tomorrow afternoon at 3:30.

Taken Away.

The remains of Lois, the 11-year-old child of Mrs. Emmett Whan, were taken to East Palestine for interment today.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, MARCH 6.

For President,
WILLIAM McKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

TRUE courage

Is the courage of your convictions.

The true man or woman cannot be bought with a price.

The school board don't want to read resolutions or memorials from churches and patriotic societies.
Why?

SPAIN may hate the Yankee with a terrible, demoniac hatred. But the average don has a healthy respect for the power of Uncle Samuel's Jack tars.

ONE of the features to especially admire in Evangelist Schivera is his intense earnestness. A second feature worthy of commendation is his absolute fearlessness in condemnation of that which he believes to be evil and dangerous to the community.

CLEVELAND should not hate Spain, simply because Spain was so eager to recognize the southern confederacy, shortly after the outbreak of the great rebellion, as many of Grover's present counsellors and warm personal friends were warm admirers and advocates of that confederacy.

THE Catholics of Manitoba voted to retain the protestant Bible in the schools. What's the matter with the miserable excuse made by some members of the board that they forbid the reading of the Bible in order to please the Catholic element of East Liverpool. Is this their true reason? Turn on the light.

WHAT DOES HE MEAN?

He is a man of striking appearance, showing strong muscular power; is of medium height, broad chested, and his voice indicates immense strength of lung. He has the appearance of one whom the average tough would not care for tackling. He came into the office of the NEWS REVIEW yesterday afternoon, responded to an invitation to be seated with a hearty
"thank you, sir," took a chair and said: "Do you know the power which controls East Liverpool?" We confessed that we were, to a certain extent, all at sea respecting the elucidation of the conundrum, and he continued: "I am not astonished at your reticence. I recognize the fact that at times speech is silver and silence is golden;" but I believe that you do know the power which is now controlling this city, and you know, further, that it is controlling it to the city's hurt. I know that now is not the proper time to develop the matter, as the evangelist meetings are on, and will do great good to your city of East Liverpool. But the time of development is not far distant. The field will be cultivated, the grain put in and the harvest arrive in due time.
Will your harvesters be on hand?
Will they be men of manly men, doing the work which God has mapped out for them? Why, sir, the question of the reading of the bible in your public schools is but a feeler; but a measure to test the pulse and heart beats of the public at large. Your public school system is the barrier which must be torn down. It is the educator which stands in the way of a system of power whose motto is 'rule or ruin?' As I said before, I know that you are better posted than you profess to be. I know that you are keeping your eyes open and watching the trend of events and happenings; but you are bending to the idea that
'speech is silver and silence is golden,' and you can be prevailed upon to utter the right speech when the emergency demands. Good day, sir. I shall call upon you at some future time." Who is he? What does he mean? Turn on the light.

CONGRESSMAN HARTMAN'S ATTACK.

He Makes a Sensational Verbal Assault on Mr. Cleveland on Account of Utterances in the New York Address Couldn't Stop Him.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—A sensational attack has been made in the house upon President Cleveland by Mr. Hartman (Rep., Mont.), who felt himself personally aggrieved by Mr. Cleveland's utterances at the Presbyterian Home mission meeting in New York on Tuesday, and who seized the opportunity allowed by the latitude of debate on appropriation bills to repel the idea that the western states were the home of evil influences.

Mr. Hartman sent to the clerk's desk and had read the following extracts from Mr. Cleveland's address: "The toleration of evils and indifference to Christianizing and elevating agencies" in the new states of the west, which,
"if unchecked, develops into badly regulated municipalities, corrupt and unsafe territories and undesirable states."

Several attempts were made to stop Mr. Hartman, but they failed, he being sustained by Hepburn (Iowa), who was in the chair. Mr. Hartman said:

Under the constitution I deny the right of the chief executive to willfully and wantonly, in public address or otherwise, insult any of the citizens or any states of the union. He has been called to preside, or try to influence pending legislation. When the president made the foregoing remarks he knew there were pending in congress bills for the admission of certain territories into the union of states.
He had been advised that a majority of the citizens of those territories were antagonistic to his peculiar financial and economic views, and under the cloak of a supposed religious address, before a religious organization and with gross impropriety and for the purposes of preventing the achievement of the rights of statehood to which they aspire and are entitled, he gave utterance to the vilest and most malicious slander against those citizens and states of the republic whose interests he is sworn to protect and uphold.

The percentage of crime in those states and territories will not exceed that found in the states of New York, where the president seems to think all virtue resides.
The per capita of wealth of the citizens of our state exceeds that of any state in the union save one. Our educational facilities are equal to those of any section of the union, and if some of the patriotism of the people of the west had been possessed by the president and his friends the citizens of this republic would not have been called upon to witness the national humiliation of hauling down the American flag at Honolulu, of begging the bankers of Wall street and Great Britain to save us from financial ruin, and, under the belated of the powers behind the throne, of denying to the oppressed citizens of Cuba the recognition which the dictates of humanity and common sense demand. [Applause.]

It is true we do not get our patriotism from Wall street, where the president gets
his. [Laughter.] It is true none of our citizens have possessed that particular style of patriotism which would enable them to save by thrift and strict economy five times as much as their entire income preme lodge will meet in Cleveland August 25, and saying that if satisfac-himself up. Subsequently he was released on bail in the sum of $3,500.

there will remain 70 cents for one year.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, MARCH 6.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

True courage

Is the courage of your convictions.

The true man or woman cannot be bought with a price.

read resolutions or memorials from churches and patriotic societies.
Why?

terrible, demoniac hatred. But the average don has a healthy respect for the power of Uncle Samuel's Jack
tars.

ONE of the features to especially admire in Evangelist Schiverea is his intense earnestness. A second feature worthy of commendation is his absolute fearlessness in condemnation of
dangerous to the community.

CLEVELAND should not hate Spain,
simply because Spain was so eager to recognize the southern confederacy, shortly after the outbreak of the
great rebellion, as many of Grover's present counsellors and warm personal friends were warm admirers and advocates of that confederacy.

retain the protestant Bible in the schools. What's the matter with the miserable excuse made by some mem-
reading of the Bible in order to please
the Catholic element of East Liverpool. Is this their true reason? Turn on the light.

WHAT DOES HE MEAN?

He is a man of striking appearance, showing strong muscular power; is of
medium height, broad chested, and
his voice indicates immense strength
of lung. He has the appearance of
not care for tackling. He came into
day afternoon, responded to an invitation to be seated with a hearty
"thank you, sir," took a chair and
said: "Do you know the power which
controls East Liverpool?" We confessed that we were, to a certain extent, all at sea respecting the elucidation of the conundrum, and he continued: "I am not astonished at your
is golden; but I believe that you do know the power which is now controlling this city, and you know, further,
that it is controlling it to the city's
will do great good to your city of East Liverpool. But the time of development is not far distant. The field will be cultivated, the grain put in
and the harvest arrive in due time.
Will your harvesters be on hand?
Will they be men of manly men, doing
the work which God has mapped out
for them? Why, sir, the question of the reading of the bible in your public schools is but a feeler; but a measure to test the pulse and heart beats of the public at large. Your public school system is the barrier which
must be torn down. It is the educator which stands in the way of a system of power whose motto is 'rule
or ruin'?" As I said before, I know that
to be. I know that you are keeping
trend of events and happenings; but
and you can be prevailed upon to
utter the right speech when the emergency demands. Good day, sir. I shall call upon you at some future time." Who is he? What does he
mean? Turn on the light.

CONGRESSMAN HARTMAN'S ATTACK.

on Mr. Cleveland on Account of Utterances in the New York Address Couldn't Stop Him.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—A sensational
attack has been made in the house upon President Cleveland by Mr. Hartman
(Rep., Mont.), who felt himself personally aggrieved by Mr. Cleveland's utterances at the Presbyterian Home mission meeting in New York on Tuesday,
and who seized the opportunity allowed by the latitude of debate on appropriation bills to repel the idea that the western states were the home of evil influences.

Mr. Hartman sent to the clerk's desk
from Mr. Cleveland's address: "The
toleration of evils and indifference to Christianizing and elevating agencies" in the new states of the west, which, "if unchecked, develops into badly regulated municipalities, corrupt and unsafe territories and undesirable states."

Several attempts were made to stop
Mr. Hartman, but they failed, he being sustained by Hepburn (Iowa), who was in the chair. Mr. Hartman said:
Under the constitution I deny the right
of the chief executive to willfully and wantonly, in public address or otherwise, insult any of the citizens or any state of the republic whose interests he is sworn to protect and uphold.

and territories will not exceed that found in the state of New York, where the president seems to think all virtue resides.
The per capita of wealth of the citizens of our state exceeds that of any state in the Union save one. Our educational facilities are equal to those of any section of
the union, and if some of the patriotism
of the people of the west had been possessed by the president and his friends the
humiliation of hauling down the American flag at Honolulu, of begging the
bankers of Wall street and Great Britain
to save us from financial ruin, and under the behests of the powers behind the throne, of denying to the oppressed citizens of Cuba the recognition which the
demand. [Applause.]

from Wall street, where the president gets
his. [Laughter.] It is true none of our citizens have possessed that artificial style of patriotism which would enable

CUBAN RESOLUTIONS

Of the House Quickly Adopted by the Conferrees.

NEARLY WENT THROUGH SENATE.

Action Finally Postponed Until Next Monday—Chandler Declared Himself In Favor of the United States Maintaining the Independence of Cuba.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The conferrees of the two houses on the Cuban resolutions, consisting of Senators Sherman, Morgan and Lodge on the part of the senate and of Messrs. Hitt, Adams and McCreary of the house, reached a conclusion more speedily and with less difficulty in their conference than had been anticipated. The consultation was of about 40 minutes' duration and it became apparent immediately that the representatives of the senate would be satisfied with the house substitute. Senator Morgan was strongly in favor of a clause of the house resolution which contemplates intervention, a declaration which he had suggested should be made when the question was before the senate.

There was mention made of the possibilities of war with Spain as a result of the action by congress and the exclusive statement concerning the position of the administration in opposition to recognition made in these dispatches was also the subject of some talk. So far as the house is concerned, the Cuban revolution is a closed question for the present. There will be no more debate, because it is only necessary for the secretary of the senate to report to the house that the senate conferrees have agreed to the house resolutions.

For a time it looked as though the Cuban question would be finally disposed of in the senate by immediately agreeing to the conference report accepting the house resolutions. At the conclusion of Mr. Mitchell's elaborate argument on the Dupont case, Mr. Sherman presented the report of the conferrees and asked for immediate action. Representatives Hitt and Adams, two of the house conferrees, were present at the time, as it was expected that the report would be adopted. But as it was then late not more than a dozen senators were in the chamber, and Mr. Hale of Maine suggested that it was undesirable to crowd through a resolution of this magnitude at a late hour and with an empty senate. This brought considerable sharp debate.

Mr. Chandler, who had not before been heard on Cuba, declared himself in favor not only of recognizing, but of maintaining the independence of Cuba, even if it resulted in war with Spain. Mr. Hawley expressed sympathy with the public feeling against Spain, yet he feared the earnestness and eagerness of the United States would involve us in war not only with Spain but other European countries. He depreciated the discrepancy with which warlike utterances were made. Mr. Sherman concluded to let the subject go over until Monday, the senate having agreed to adjourn until then, and he gave notice that he would call up the report during the morning hour, lasting from 12 until 2.

HAVE SYMPATHY FOR SPAIN.

Suggestion of a European Combination Against the United States.

LONDON, March 6.—The Pall Mall Gazette's Paris special makes the statement that the Venezuelan and Brazilian disputes of England and France should be solved by the two European powers quickly, in order to give both a free hand to back up in the Cuban question.

The writer asserts that the British and French ambassadors at Madrid have both signified friendly feelings, but the joint action of the two countries must await the settlement of the Egyptian question.

Excellent authorities say there is absolutely no truth in the statement that the British government dare not back Spain because four Englishmen in five sympathize with the Cubans, though they say no doubt the latitude of speech in the senate has created a momentary sympathy with Spain.

ANOTHER CONSULATE ATTACKED. The United States Flag Again Insulted in Spain at Valencia.

VALENCIA, March 6.—The disorders which were prevalent here when the news was first received of the action of the United States senate on the Cuban question have broken out afresh, and there were renewed demonstrations of hostility to the United States.

The mob made its way to the United States consulate, which was stoned and the windows of which were smashed by the infuriated populace.

Commission May Be Sent to Cuba.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—It is possible that President Cleveland will send a military commission to Cuba to report on the condition of affairs there. In this connection it is announced that General Wesley Merritt, commander of the department of Missouri and several other high officers of the army, have been suddenly summoned to Washington.

Cleveland Against Recognition.

MADRID, March 6.—According to a statement in El Dia, Senor Dupuy de Lome, the Spanish minister to Washington, has telegraphed to the government that President Cleveland will refuse, as long as he is president, either to recognize the rebels or intervene in the Cuban question.

Spanish Flag Burned in Leadville.

LEADVILLE, Colo., March 6.—There was most intense excitement in this city when the news was received of the burning of the American flag by the Spaniards. A Spanish flag was burned, while the crowd sang "America" and "Columbia."

Princeton Students Insult Spain.

PRINCETON, N. J., March 6.—The undergraduates of Princeton have burned in effigy the King of Spain. The flag of Spain was dragged through the main street and later was torn to pieces.

BARGAIN SHOE HOUSE,

Of the House Quickly Adopted by the Conferrees.

NEARLY WENT THROUGH SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The conferrees of the two houses on the Cuban resolutions, consisting of Senators Sherman, Morgan and Lodge on the part of the senate and of Messrs. Hitt, Adams and McCreary of the house, reached a conclusion more speedily and with less difficulty in their conference than had been anticipated. The consultation was of about 40 minutes' duration and it became apparent immediately that the representatives of the senate would be satisfied with the house substitute.

Senator Morgan was strongly in favor of a clause of the house resolution which contemplates intervention, a declaration which he had suggested should be made when the question was before the senate.

There was mention made of the possibilities of war with Spain as a result of the action by congress and the exclusive statement concerning the position of the administration in opposition to recognition made in these dispatches was also the subject of some talk. So far as the house is concerned, the Cuban revolution is a closed question for the present. There will be no more debate, because it is only necessary for the secretary of the senate to report to the house that the senate conferrees have agreed to the house resolutions.

For a time it looked as though the Cuban question would be finally disposed of in the senate by immediately agreeing to the conference report accepting the house resolutions. At the conclusion of Mr. Mitchell's elaborate argument on the Dupont case, Mr. Sherman presented the report of the conferrees and asked for immediate action. Representatives Hitt and Adams, two of the house conferrees, were present at the time, as it was expected that the report would be adopted. But as it was then late not more than a dozen senators were in the chamber, and Mr. Hale of Maine suggested that it was undesirable to crowd through a resolution of this magnitude at a late hour and with an empty senate. This brought considerable sharp debate.

Mr. Chandler, who had not before been heard on Cuba, declared himself in favor not only of recognizing, but of maintaining the independence of Cuba, even if it resulted in war with Spain. Mr. Hawley expressed sympathy with the public feeling against Spain, yet he feared the earnestness and eagerness of the United States would involve us in war not only with Spain but other European countries. He deprecated the flippancy with which warlike utterances were made. Mr. Sherman concluded to let the subject go over until Monday, the senate having agreed to adjourn until then, and he gave notice that he would call up the report during the morning hour, lasting from 12 until 2.

HAVE SYMPATHY FOR SPAIN.

Suggestion of a European Combination Against the United States.

LONDON, March 6.—The Pall Mall Gazette's Paris special makes the statement that the Venezuelan and Brazilian disputes of England and France should be solved by the two European powers quickly, in order to give both a free hand to back up in the Cuban question.

The writer asserts that the British and French ambassadors at Madrid have both signified friendly feelings, but the joint action of the two countries must await the settlement of the Egyptian question.

Excellent authorities say there is absolutely no truth in the statement that the British government dare not back Spain because four Englishmen in five sympathize with the Cubans, though they say no doubt the latitude of speech in the senate has created a momentary sympathy with Spain.

ANOTHER CONSULATE ATTACKED.

The United States Flag Again Insulted in Spain at Valencia.

VALENCIA, March 6.—The disorders which were prevalent here when the news was first received of the action of the United States senate on the Cuban question have broken out afresh, and there were renewed demonstrations of hostility to the United States.

The mob made its way to the United States consulate, which was stoned and the windows of which were smashed by the infuriated populace.

Commission May Be Sent to Cuba.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—It is possible that President Cleveland will send a military commission to Cuba to report on the condition of affairs there. In this connection it is announced that General Wesley Merritt, commander of the department of Missouri and several other high officers of the army, have been suddenly summoned to Washington.

Cleveland Against Recognition.

MADRID, March 6.—According to a statement in El Dia, Senor Dupuy de Lome, the Spanish minister to Washington, has telegraphed to the government that President Cleveland will refuse, as long as he is president, either to recognize the rebels or intervene in the Cuban question.

Spanish Flag Burned in Leadville.

LEADVILLE, Colo., March 6.—There was most intense excitement in this city when the news was received of the burning of the American flag by the Spaniards. A Spanish flag was burned, while the crowd sang "America" and "Columbia."

Princeton Students Insult Spain.

PRINCETON, N. J., March 6.—The undergraduates of Princeton have burned in effigy the King of Spain. The flag of Spain was dragged through the main street and later was torn to pieces.

TURN ON THE LIGHT.

A wicked man in a dying condition said to his friend: "Do you believe in heaven?" The answer came direct, "certainly I do." Then came the second pitiful plea: "Do you believe in a hell?" Again the answer, "certainly I do." Then came the poor sinner's awful accusation: "In the name of everything holy and sacred, why have you not been man enough to tell me so? You never talked to me about such matters; you never talked to me about my soul." This was the stone of indifference, and it was not rolled away by this professing Christian.

And you must avoid criticism of others. This class of criticism requires neither heart nor brain. Some critics have asserted that I walk around the platform like a wild animal. Another says that I make people tired by talking about the Bible. Another says that I make people laugh; that I use odd expressions and tell funny stories. Sometimes I go fishing, dear people, and I do not always use the same bait. Sometimes I use angle worms and sometimes use flies. Laugh, if you want to, God bless you. Lots of men are attracted to the meeting in some such measure, and the saving of souls results. One good lady objected to my walking up and down and to my gestures, telling me how Spurgeon stood. To please her, I tried to imitate Spurgeon, and held onto the table with both hands while I talked. The result was I lost my subject, lost myself and would have fainted away had I not broken loose and acted my natural self.

Don't criticize too closely. You may do great harm. Why, God bless you, I'm doing the very best I can. If any of you can do better, step right up and take my place.

And don't make excuses when called upon to do work for Jesus. You may think you can do nothing, but Jesus has work for each one of us. The poor old fellow who had nothing and thought he could do nothing at the public service, finally struck the idea when he said: "Oh, yes; I'll take my cane and keep the dogs away." You can sing for Jesus. If you can't do the hifalutin' work in this line, do what you can; if you can't reach G flat, try your hand at B nothing. What do you need to care if you can't reach the right pitch; pitch in, and it will be all right.

Don't stay at home on account of the babies; bring the little ones with you. God bless them; you start them both with a B—Bible, baby; baby, Bible. At one of my meetings I took the baby from its mother's arms and she fell down at the mercy seat and Jesus saved her. Bring the babies, even if you have to bring a bottle to feed them. What if the baby does cry. It don't cry for fun; it's either stuck with a pin or it's hungry; a baby gets hungry every 20 minutes.

Oh, the sin of unbelief. My mother met me at the green room door. I was surprised to see her there. She said to me: "You'll never die in this business, my son; you will yet preach the gospel." Shortly afterward I went to my home, lifted mother in my arms and said to her: "Mother, mother, I've found Jesus." Oh, how happy she was then. "I simply threw myself on God's mercy and He saved me, mother dear." Tears ran down the furrows in mother's face. Men, I had planted those furrows in my beloved mother's face; mother's eyes were sunken in her head; her hair was white; it was not the work of years; it was not on account of her age—it was caused by her son's wickedness, the waywardness of her boy. Men, God pity me. I killed my mother, and I'd lose both of these good arms at the shoulder if I could undo what I did. I didn't kill her with the stab of a knife, or with a pistol bullet—I killed her by inches, by my waywardness. Boys, don't kill your mother; they love you, lads, they love you well; don't kill them. I've had hell in my heart at times since I killed mother. I want to thank God for her prayers; for her wonderful faith in God's mercy and goodness; faith and prayers which kept me out of hell.

A minister of the gospel came to me about his three loved children—unsaved. He was in agony. I said to him: "Why don't you trust God—take him at his word; only believe his precious promises." He looked at me and seemed dazed, but said he would try. At an after meeting, a fine looking young man rose and asked for the prayers of God's people, that Jesus might forgive his sins. The minister turned to me his face working convulsively, with: "Brother Schiverea, that's my boy." Then a young girl rose and asked for prayers, and the amazed preacher said: "That's my youngest daughter." Back in the audience rose a fine-looking young lady, about 19 years of age. The minister grasped me by the arm, his face set and white, and he stammered forth: "Dear Lord, that's my other daughter," and he went to bed and was sick for a week. If he had had another child to be saved, it would have killed him—he was utterly astounded at God's goodness. Ask God for what you want. Ask in faith believing. If you ask aright your prayer will be answered.

You see, when the stone of unbelief was rolled away by the Christian father, God did his part at once. Why cannot our dear Jewish brethren take Jesus as their Savior. Jesus was a Jew. He died for the Jews, just as he died for you and for me. I was preaching in Faneuil Hall, Boston, and telling the wonderful story of Jesus and his love, when Samuel Levi, a prominent Jew, came forward to the platform and cried out: "Yes, I'll believe now; your Jesus is my Jesus—your Savior my Savior." I met him one year afterward, and he was doing his best to convert the other members of his family. Roll away the stone and God will save East Liverpool.

CLARA BARTON PLEASED.

She Writes Concerning the Porte's Permission to Distribute Relief.

NEW YORK, March 6.—A letter just received by a member of the American National Red Cross society from Miss Clara Barton, dated Para, Constantinople, tells of the journey of the Red Cross party which sailed from here on Jan. 22, and also contains the following: "The cablegram sent by Minister Terrell to Secretary Olney, and which I trust was made public, was the outcome of a call upon the sublime porte in the person of its minister of foreign affairs, which was in every way agreeable, cordial and satisfactory as it could have been made in any country. Not only was the fullest permission given for our entrance into Armenia, but an active and generous effort was displayed toward making our endeavors, our journeys, etc., safe, pleasant and as easy as possible, and also as productive of beneficial results as could be wished for. Mr. Terrell was very much gratified and seems very happy over our success, to which the state department and he contributed so largely.

"As soon as an outfit can be made and passage secured our men will start for the desolated regions. It will be cold and terribly hard for them, but that is what they came for. I have met several of the leading missionaries and other gentlemen here. It is hoped that the massacres are over, but it is of course uncertain. The general feeling is that Russia has said 'enough.' The distress and suffering through want and sickness are described as being enormous and terrible."

A NEGRO CONFERENCE.

Colored People of the South Gathered Together at Tuskegee, Ala.

TUSKEGEE, Ala., March 6.—The annual Tuskegee negro conference, under the auspices of the Tuskegee Negro Industrial and Normal school, now in session, is, in many respects, the most notable gathering of representatives of the colored race that has ever assembled in America. Representative men of the race have come from sections of Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia and other states to exchange views as to their present industrial, educational and religious condition, and to endeavor to devise a remedy for the evils now barring the progress of the race. Nearly 800 colored people listened to the opening address of Prof. B. T. Washington.

Fatally Shot by a Detective.

WEEHAWKEN, N. J., March 6.—William Watson, superintendent of the Hudson river division of the West Shore railroad, was shot in his private office at the West Shore passenger depot, Weehawken, yesterday, by Detective Edward Clifford of the Weehawken police and formerly an employee of the railroad. Clifford fired two shots, both of which took effect. Clifford, it is said, shot his former employer because he lost his position.

Hawaiians Consider It an Insult.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—The steamship Australia has arrived bringing the following advices from Honolulu: On the morning of the 19th, previous to the opening of the legislature, the U. S. S. Bennington left port for target practice. She returned to port two days later. Her officers were invited to be present at the ceremony. Their non-acceptance is looked upon here as another insult to the Hawaiian government.

Mrs. Nansen Don't Believe It.

BERLIN, March 6.—The Local Anzeiger publishes an interview with Dr. Nansen's wife in which she says that she does not believe the reports recently received that her husband is returning from the North Pole. She is confident that her husband will succeed in his purpose to reach the North Pole, but she thinks it is too early yet to expect news.

Don't Propose a Monetary Conference.

LONDON, March 6.—The first lord of the treasury, Mr. A. J. Balfour, answering a question in the house of commons on behalf of the government, said he did not believe that anything would be gained by Great Britain taking the initiative in proposing a monetary conference.

To Match Corbett and Fitzsimmons.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The articles of agreement for the proposed fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons before the National Sporting club of London have been received by Richard K. Fox. Mr. Fox is authorized to sign the men, receive deposits and arrange all details.

Mead's Warning to England.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Admiral Richard W. Meade, in a lecture on "The Caribbean Sea," said that in case of trouble between the United States and Great Britain over Venezuela the first shot fired in anger would sound the death knell of the British empire.

CRISPI'S RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Rioting Still Continues In Italy—Defeat Not So Great In Abyssinia.

ROME, March 6.—The resignations of Premier Crispi and the cabinet, over the dissatisfaction among the people caused by the defeat of the Italian army in Abyssinia, have been accepted by King Humbert.

This sudden action prevented a proposed impeachment and other radical action in the chamber of deputies. As a result of the indignation over the African campaign and the resulting fiasco is menacing in the extreme and an uprising of the people is threatened at Naples.

Among those who probably be entrusted with the formation of a new cabinet the names of the Marquis di Rudini, Signor Saracco, General Ricotti and Beinn, an ex-minister, are mentioned.

There seems to be no cessation and no amelioration of the agitation and disorders among the people throughout Italy, notwithstanding the less disastrous character of later reports of the battle of Adowa. The agitation in this city is as threatening as ever. Almost everywhere excited crowds are parading the streets, and the police have had great difficulty in dispersing them, many conflicts occurring, followed by arrests.

Later advices received here from Massowah show that, although the rout of the Italians was complete, the extent of the disaster is somewhat less than rumor has made it. This is said to be owing to the fact that the Shoans did not pursue the Italians to Asmara, as was at first reported, and parties of stragglers who were believed to have perished are now arriving there. This has caused a renewal of the complaints against the government for not giving the official estimate of the number of killed and wounded, which, however, is still believed to be over 5,000.

BLACKBURN TO THE END.

Silver Democrats Will Support Him. The Republican Nominee.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 6.—The Republican joint caucus has nominated the Hon. St. John Boyle of Louisville for United States senator by acclamation.

A joint caucus was held by the Democrats to hear the petition of the sound money Democrats for the withdrawal of Senator Blackburn. Twenty-nine sound money Democrats, including the 20 signers to the petition, were absent. Senator Blackburn was present. He said he was the caucus nominee and only the caucus could remove him. The caucus adopted stirring resolutions in support of Blackburn and adjourned determined to support him to the end.

Republican Congressional Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The members of the Republican congressional campaign committee have selected the officers who will have control of the organization in this congress. Mr. Babcock was re-elected chairman. Mr. Aspley of Massachusetts, vice chairman. Mr. William B. Thompson of Michigan, treasurer. The executive committee chosen was Representatives Hull, Iowa; Cannon, Illinois; Sherman, New York; Overstreet, Indiana; Mercer, Nebraska. Senators Pritchard, North Carolina; Pettigrew, South Dakota; Mitchell, Oregon.

HOLMES MUST DIE MAY 7.

Governor Hastings Fixes the Day of Death of the Multi-Murderer.

HARRISBURG, March 6.—The date for the execution of H. H. Holmes, the convicted murderer of Benjamin F. Pitelz and alleged murderer of 21 others, has been fixed by Governor Hastings. He names Thursday, May 7, as the day. The decision of the supreme court affirming the judgment of the lower court was received at the executive department and was immediately laid before the governor by Secretary Butler.

The governor thought that Holmes should have at least 60 days in which to prepare for death and selected the time accordingly. The death warrant was at once prepared and forwarded to Sheriff Clement at Philadelphia.

TURN ON THE LIGHT.

A wicked man in a dying condition said to his friend: "Do you believe in heaven?" The answer came direct, "certainly I do." Then came the second pitiful plea: "Do you believe in a hell?" Again the answer, "certainly I do." Then came the poor sinner's awful accusation: "In the name of everything holy and sacred, why have you not been man enough to tell me so? You never talked to me about such matters; you never talked to me about my soul." This was the stone of indifference, and it was not rolled away by this professing Christian.

And you must avoid criticism of others. This class of criticism requires neither heart nor brain. Some critics have asserted that I walk around the platform like a wild animal. Another says that I make people tired by talking about the Bible. Another says that I make people laugh; that I use odd expressions and tell funny stories. Sometimes I go fishing, dear people, and I do not always use the same bait. Sometimes I use angle worms and sometimes use flies. Laugh, if you want to, God bless you. Lots of men are attracted to the meeting in some such measure, and the saving of souls results. One good lady objected to my walking up and down and to my gestures, telling me how Spurgeon stood. To please her, I tried to imitate Spurgeon, and held onto the table with both hands while I talked. The result was I lost my subject, lost myself and would have fainted away had I not broken loose and acted my natural self.

Don't criticize too closely. You may do great harm. Why, God bless you, I'm doing the very best I can. If any of you can do better, step right up and take my place.

And don't make excuses when called upon to do work for Jesus. You may think you can do nothing, but Jesus has work for each one of us. The poor old fellow who had nothing and thought he could do nothing at the public service, finally struck the idea when he said: "Oh, yes; I'll take my cane and keep the dogs away." You can sing for Jesus. If you can't do the hifalutin' work in this line, do what you can; if you can't reach G flat, try your hand at B natural. What do you need to care if you can't reach the right pitch; pitch in, and it will be all right.

Don't stay at home on account of the babies; bring the little ones with you. God bless them; you start them both with a B-Bible, baby; baby, Bible. At one of my meetings I took the baby from its mother's arms and she fell down at the mercy seat and Jesus saved her. Bring the babies, even if you have to bring a bottle to feed them. What if the baby does cry. It don't cry for fun; it's either stuck with a pin or it's hungry; a baby gets hungry every 20 minutes.

Oh, the sin of unbelief. My mother met me at the green room door. I was surprised to see her there. She said to me: "You'll never die in this business, my son; you will yet preach the gospel." Shortly afterward I went to my home, lifted mother in my arms and said to her: "Mother, mother, I've found Jesus." Oh, how happy she was then. "I simply threw myself on God's mercy and He saved me, mother dear." Tears ran down the furrows in mother's face. Men, I had planted those furrows in my beloved mother's face; mother's eyes were sunken in her head; her hair was white; it was not the work of years; it was not on account of her age—it was caused by her son's wickedness, the waywardness of her boy. have killed him—he was utterly astounded at God's goodness. Ask God for what you want. Ask in faith believing. If you ask aright your prayer will be answered.

Why cannot our dear Jewish brethren take Jesus as their Savior. Jesus was a Jew. He died for the Jews, just as he died for you and for me. I was preaching in Faneuil Hall, Boston, and telling the wonderful story of Jesus and his love, when Samuel Levi, a prominent Jew, came forward to the platform and cried out: "Yes, I'll believe now; your Jesus is my Jesus—your Savior my Savior." I met him one year afterward, and he was doing his best to convert the other members of his family. Roll away the stone and God will save East Liverpool.

There was a vile den down the Ohio, at Toronto. They told me it could not be closed. I told them that Jesus still lives. Praise God, when I bade that multitude of friends goodbye, the sign on that den of iniquity was "Closed—closed forever." The Christian believers had rolled away the stone. God did the rest.

Some Christian women were singing "Rescue the Perishing." I met a drunkard, low down. I half carried, half pushed him into their presence and gave him a seat. Some of them gathered their skirts around them and said: "What will Schivera bring in next?" I said to them, "That has a soul. It was somebody's darling at one time; some mother's boy." Lazarus was stinking. God brought him forth from the grave. He can save even the gutter drunkard. Let us roll away the stone. God bless you. Good night.

Reverend Taggart dismissed the audience with the benediction. Come early tonight if you want a seat. You will have a cordial welcome.

"Perhaps you would not think so, out a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Cyrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. There are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one, get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Doctor Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but he will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

You want a handsome spring suit, fitting you to perfection, best quality of goods and workmanship the very best, with prices reasonable. You will call for these requisites on Fred Laufenberger, Market street.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

NEW YORK, March 6.—A letter just received by a member of the American National Red Cross society from Miss Clara Barton, dated Para, Constantinople, tells of the journey of the Red Cross party which sailed from here on Jan. 22, and also contains the following:

"The cablegram sent by Minister Terrell to Secretary Olney, and which I trust was made public, was the outcome of a call upon the sublime porte in the person of its minister of foreign affairs which was in every way as agreeable, cordial and satisfactory as it could have been made in any country. Not only was the fullest permission given for our entrance into Armenia, but an active and generous effort was displayed toward making our endeavors, our journeys, etc., safe, pleasant and as easy as possible, and also as productive of beneficial results as could be wished for. Mr. Terrell was very much gratified and seems very happy over our success, to which the state department and he contributed so largely.

"As soon as an outfit can be made and passage secured our men will start for the desolated regions. It will be cold and terribly hard for them, but that is what they came for. I have met several of the leading missionaries and other gentlemen here. It is hoped that the massacres are over, but it is of course uncertain. The general feeling is that Russia has said 'enough.' The sickness and suffering through want and sickness are described as being enormous and terrible."

TUSKEGEE, Ala., March 6.—The annual Tuskegee negro conference, under the auspices of the Tuskegee Negro Industrial and Normal school, now in session, is, in many respects, the most notable gathering of representatives of the colored race that has ever assembled in America.

Representative men of the race have come from sections of Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia and other states to exchange views as to their present industrial, educational and religious condition, and to endeavor to devise a remedy for the evils now barring the progress of the race. CRISPI'S RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Killing Still Continues in Italy—Defeat Not So Great in Abyssinia.

ROME, March 6.—The resignations of Premier Crispi and the cabinet, over the dissatisfaction among the people caused by the defeat of the Italian army in Abyssinia, have been accepted by King Humbert.

This sudden action prevented a proposed impeachment and other radical action in the chamber of deputies. As a result of the indignation over the African campaign and the resulting fiasco is menacing in the extreme and an uprising of the people is threatened at Naples.

Among those who probably be entrusted with the formation of a new cabinet the names of the Marquis di Rudini, Signor Saracco, General Ricotti and Beinin, an ex-minister, are mentioned.

There seems to be no cessation and no amelioration of the agitation and disorders among the people throughout Italy, notwithstanding the less disastrous character of later reports of the battle of Adowa. The agitation in this city is as threatening as ever. Almost everywhere excited crowds are parading the streets, and the police have had great difficulty in dispersing them. Many conflicts occurring, followed by arrests. Later advices received here from Massowah show that, although the rout of the Italians was complete, the extent of the disaster is somewhat less than rumor has made it. This is said to be owing to the fact that the Shoans did not pursue the Italians to Asmara, as was at first reported, and parties of stragglers who were believed to have perished are now arriving there. This has caused a renewal of the complaints against the government for not giving the official estimate of the number of killed and wounded, which, however, is still believed to be over 5,000.
